This did not happen. Army nurses and medics fighting to escape Nazi-occupied Europe.

More than black Army nurses served stateside and overseas during the war. The In those days everything was in short supply and was used indefinitely. Yet another book that tells individual stories of the heroism and bravery of women in WWII. Despite long hours and being emotionally and physically drained, none of our class gave up.

The competition for woman power was becoming very acute. Accordingly, the profession undertook to step up enrollments in schools of nursing.
