It clearly illustrated that nothing much ever seems to really get. No trivia or quizzes. Without a path, feeling is inert. Yet Woodward also uses this book to meditate on why the war went so wrong for so long. In fact, Woodward wants his sources to shine so that he can develop more sources for future stories. An even handed account of the less than satisfactory workings of the White House and Congress dealing with economic and debt problems during the Obama term. Susan Collins challenged by top Maine Democrat.
