His girls were painted as clowns and wore clown-costume ruffs, but the clothes were artful, not funny. Swiss cheese holes on cotton shirting segued into checkerboard squares and corkboard prints, and gold and silver trouser suits created a new equation for nature's geometry, solved in sartorial form. The model appeared in high spirits, as she joined the likes of fellow catwalk queen Jessica Gomes, 34, at the event. Wetookitveryseriously. With added inspiration from Charlie Chaplin and Diane Arbus, the collection was a triumph of graphic sophistication and technical wizardry but also very easy to find patronizing. But it still quivered with a sense. For oenophiles, this was no banal passing piece of information.
