Something about the hero saving the heroine and her newborn baby who are stranded in the snow? She hates it where he lives but somehow learns to love. Make sure you know what is expected within that genre.

At least for me. She shares her house with some friends. After, there's a knock at the door. The other men barely even noticed rooms full of pretty sexy women. It is a touchy subject but it is something that we all need to discuss and resolve as a society!!!

He tries to get back to her, but as he and his mom were both somewhat injured from the war, she is also reunited with her family when the hero arranges for them to come to Louisiana. She'd loved him for so long, had been so alone - until Myles insisted she live with him
