Monthly can seem too frequent for review because strategy, by its nature, is long term. Sometimes this agenda makes perfect sense. Work through the issues and agree on the action plan. There are a number of useful business-analysis models that may help you think. In the new phase of your business you'll need to plan your finances and resourcing carefully at all times. They notice that performance metrics start to dip, productivity declines, growth plateaus and potential efficiency gains are being missed.

Can you imagine yourself there, hearing something fresh and new? These issues lead to lower market competitiveness, customer attrition, and the loss of their best employees. Schedule the monthly strategy meetings on the same day and at the same time each month.
