Lost in the Fire Be brave. His light does not simply oppose itself to a darkness that surrounds it without touching it, but rather seeks out the darkness and, having found it, enters into it, bears it as His own, accompanying the darkness to the end and, only in that way, dispelling it for .
Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.
You know why I make so big a deal of grace? Check how high you want the resolution to be. This is what darkness really is no matter how it dresses up. I could easily have run into him or her. The oblique rays from the sun cast the Lions Gate Bridge in sharp relief against the Smurf-blue skies, making the structure look both more substantial and dreamlike at the same time.
